

2019 FALL CUB-O-REE LEADERS GUIDE

CAMP BENJAMIN HAWKINS

OCTOBER 18TH – 20TH

AND

OCTOBER 25TH – 27TH

PICK THE WEEKEND THAT WORKS BEST FOR YOUR PACK!

PURPOSE OF THE CUB-O-REE

The purpose of the Central Georgia Council Cub-O-Ree is to strengthen families through Scouting. The Cub-O-Ree experience provides a fun outdoor weekend camp experience for Cub Scouts and their Family. Family camping offers parents a great chance to share quality time with their children. Camp is a place for parents to let down their hair and become one of the gang. Making camp, building fires, cooking meals, cleanup and all related camping tasks become shared experiences. This shared living in camp strengthens the family. If it is good for the kids, it is good for the parents. If it is fun for them, it will be fun for the parents too. Family camp may be the first camping experience for many participants. It provides an environment for parents to introduce themselves and/or their children to the tent camping experience and the Council organized camp experience. Parents and children gain confidence that the Cub Scout can camp at future Council organized events with their unit. Although activities at the Cub-O-Ree do count towards advancement for the Cub Scout, the primary focus of the camp is fun in the outdoors for all participants.

Cub Scouts cannot camp without an adult relation, except for Webelos/Arrow of Light, who require two deep leadership.
